Highlights from the 2017 Texas iSchool Climate Survey

We administered this survey to all current students, staff, and faculty in Spring 2017. Below are some highlights from what we found. The full results appear in our Report to the Provost.

Q1 - I believe that meaningful interactions with people who are different than me is an essential part of my experience at the iSchool.

Q3 - In terms of diversity, I would describe the general climate of the iSchool as:
Q4 - To me, that the iSchool has efforts, activities, and projects related to diversity is:

- Very important
- Important
- Not particularly important
- Unimportant

Q5 - In terms of iSchool courses, I feel that issues of diversity and inclusion are:

- Adequately addressed in all courses
- Adequately addressed in some courses
- Not adequately addressed in most courses
- Not important to me
- Not applicable to me
Q6 - The populations to which I belong are represented in the iSchool’s communications, events, and student organizations.
Q8 - The iSchool should focus its diversity and inclusion efforts on (select all that apply):

- Communications
- Curriculum
- Events
- Faculty recruitment
- Staff recruitment
- Student recruitment
- Research
- Student organizations
- Retention
- None of the above (the school should make no efforts in this area)
- Other