Introduction to the Course

Description:

This course is a survey of young adult literature commonly read by people ages sixteen to twenty-five years old. The genres of Fantasy, Autobiography, Historical Fiction, Realistic Fiction, and Fan Fiction will be explored. In addition to genres, students' will also become familiar with young adult literature authors, popular banned books, social movements, literature adapted for the movies.

Note: This course contains books with adult themes including sexual assault, murder, suicide, nudity, and other controversial topics.

Course Objectives:

1. Become familiar with the transition from late childhood to adulthood through various plots and genres including required reading or high school literature, fantasy, science fiction, autobiography, historical fiction, realistic fiction, and fan fiction.
2. This course will also look into various social phenomena and artistic movements outside of or in parallel with the literary field to understand the underlying world of story-making including banned and censored books, book cover art, films utilizing young adult literature plots and subject matter from published materials, and attention paid to the lives and literary careers of significant young adult literature writers.

3. Evaluate reading materials for young adults in context to the maturing and evolving lives of the characters within the literature and the intended audiences of young adult literature within the age group of sixteen to twenty-five.

4. Evaluate and begin to understand how the characters and audience of young adult literature differ from their pre-modern counterparts, and the social and cultural crisis’ and life events that mean the most to this group of young adults or teenagers.

5. Distinguish between genres and recognize recurring themes within literature, especially between fantasy, historical fiction, and autobiography/inspired by true events novels and stories.

Required Books:

Students are required to read eleven Young Adult titles for this course. (A copy of each title is available on reserve at PCL.) In addition, there are links to online articles and media.

- The Perks of Being a Wallflower (1997) - Stephen Chbosky
- Monster (1999) - Walter Dean Myers
- White Cat (2010) - Holly Black
- Roadside Picnic (2012) - Arkady and Boris Strugatsky
- In Darkness (2013) - Nick Lake
- Gabi A Girl in Pieces (2014) - Isabel Quintero
- Mare’s War (2009) - Tanita S. Davis

Assignments:

Assignments turned in late will not be accepted.

Weekly Discussion:

Requirements: (per Week) 1 post 600 words minimum, 2 responses each 250 words minimum.

- Posts submitted after the deadline will not receive credit.
• Students must prove that they have done the readings by bringing in themes, quotes, details, etc. to support your argument, questions, or reflection.

Discussions should be addressed weekly. Each week a new discussion will open and remain unlocked for 7 days, starting the Wednesday of its designated week and locked down on the following Wednesday at 11:59 p.m.

Timed quizzes: (per Module) 21 detailed questions over readings and topics covered in each unit. Quizzes will be open book and have a 30 minute time limit. When the quiz times out, all unanswered questions will be counted as incorrect, so students should pace themselves and submit the quiz before the quiz times out.

Review Quiz Time & Proctoring Procedures Canvas Page

All quizzes will be taken using Canvas, so please take a look at the Canvas conference tool and make sure you know how to connect to your proctor. The following link describes how to join a Canvas conference: https://guide.instructure.com/m/4212/l/41982-how-do-i-join-a-web-conference. In addition, you will also be asked to share your desktop and webcam, which is located directly next to the right of the microphone button. Should you have any questions throughout the semester, feel free to contact the ISchool Tech Lab at ta_pool@ischool.utexas.edu.

Quizzes that were submitted without being logged on to the Canvas Conference tool web cam will not be accepted.

In the event you are unable to take one at those times, you must contact the TA_pool@ischool.utexas.edu no later than 5pm the Tuesday of the week the quiz is due to arrange to take the quiz IN PERSON at the iSchool IT Lab. Requests for special quiz times received after 5pm on Tuesday will receive a zero for that week.

Final project: choose 1 of the q3 options below. The final project is due in two stages. The 1st draft is due October 28th. The final version is due November 29th.

• Develop a 5 page lesson plan/proposal for a book you would like to teach in a Young Adult Lit class. Your proposal must include a synopsis and address genre, characterization, plot, and theme within teacher presentation, class activities, discussion topics, and further reading materials.
- Write a 5 page persuasive paper about a Young Adult book that has been banned. What was the circumstances of the banning? What issue(s) does it address? Argue for or against the banning and back up your opinion with facts.
- Create your own fan fiction from one of the books provided in the course. 1500 -- 3000 words. Must include aspects of the genre as presented in the readings or the discussions. (Note: it is acceptable to place your fan fiction in a different genre.) I am looking for confirmation that you understand the genre, so once you have chosen one, stay within its bounds and don’t be afraid to use tropes.
