Assignments:

Discussions 30%

Weekly Quizzes 20%

Assignments 30%

Project 20%

Total 100%

Discussions:

The discussions will take place in Canvas using the discussions tool and count as participation in the course. A few questions will be posted related to the topic and readings of the week. Students are required to post an initial discussion in 600 words or more to the board by Thursday night at 11:59pm CT each week and respond to two students in 250 words or more each by Sunday at 11:59pm CT. I will not accept late posts to the discussion board.

Weekly Quizzes:

The questions for the quizzes will come out of the assigned textbook chapters and chapter books. These questions are meant to test that students have read the book and grasped some of the concepts of the book. The quizzes will be open for a full week and are due at 11:59pm CT on Sunday. I will not accept late quizzes.

Assignments:

Students will participate in weekly assignments where they will be required to apply their understanding of the course material. The assignments will be based on concepts from the course textbook. I will not accept late assignments.

Grades:

Final grades will be determined on the basis of the following scale. Please note: to ensure fairness, all numbers are absolute, and will not be rounded up or down at any stage. Thus a B- will be inclusive of all scores of 80.000 through 83.999. The University does not recognize the grade of A+.

Students taking the class CR/F must earn at least a 60 average to earn a CR. (Graduate students must earn at least a 70 average to earn a CR.) The grade of X (incomplete) will be given only in cases of emergencies that have been reported at the time of the emergency.

A = 94-100
A- = 90-93
B+ = 87-89
B = 84-86
B- = 80-83
C+ = 77-79
C = 74-76
C- = 70-73
D+ = 67-69
D = 64-66
D- = 60-63
F = 0-60

Students with Disabilities Information:

The University of Texas at Austin provides, upon request, appropriate academic accommodations for qualified students with disabilities. For more information, contact the Office of Diversity and Community Engagement, Services for Students with Disabilities, 512-471-6259, 512-471-4641 TTY.

Religious Holidays:

By UT Austin policy, you must notify me of your pending absence at least fourteen days prior to the date of observance of a religious holy day. If you must miss a class, an examination, a work assignment, or a project in order to observe a religious holy day, you will be given an opportunity to complete the missed work within a reasonable time after the absence.

Academic Dishonesty:

University of Texas rules in regard to academic dishonesty are enforced in this class. Please do not plagiarize, as instances of plagiarism will result in an automatic F (fail) for the entire course. Read about academic dishonesty here:

SB 212:

Beginning January 1, 2020, Texas Senate Bill 212 requires all employees of Texas universities, including faculty, report any information to the Title IX Office regarding sexual harassment, sexual assault, dating violence and stalking that is disclosed to them. Texas law requires that all employees who witness or receive any information of this type (including, but not limited to, writing assignments, class discussions, or one-on-one conversations) must be reported. If you would like to speak with someone who can provide support or remedies without making an official report to the university, please email advocate@austin.utexas.edu. For more information about reporting options and resources, visit <http://www.titleix.utexas.edu/>, contact the Title IX Office via email at titleix@austin.utexas.edu, or call 512-471-0419.

Although graduate teaching and research assistants are not subject to Texas Senate Bill 212, they are still mandatory reporters under Federal Title IX laws and are required to report a wide range of behaviors we refer to as sexual misconduct, including the types of sexual misconduct covered under Texas Senate Bill 212. The Title IX office has developed supportive ways to respond to a survivor and compiled campus resources to support survivors.

Email:

“Electronic mail (e-mail), like postal mail, is a mechanism for official University communication to students. The University will exercise the right to send e-mail communications to all students, and the University will expect that e-mail communications will be received and read in a timely manner.”

(<https://it.utexas.edu/policies/university-electronic-mail-student-notification-policy>). Both the instructor and the TA will reply to student emails within 24 hours on weekdays and 48 hours on weekends barring rare and extenuating circumstances.

I look forward to working with you all this semester. If you have any questions, comments, or concerns, do not hesitate to email the Instructor or TA pool!

Expectations:

1. Complete all assignments on time. Assignments cannot be made up.
2. Be courteous to others during class discussions. All student contributions to the discussion are valued in this course. Students are expected to be respectful of other students and their opinions.
