Archives and Cultural Memory under Fire in the Balkan Wars of the 1990s
A talk by Andras Riedlmayer, Bibliographer in Islamic Art and Architecture, Harvard University
Time: Thursday, October 10, 7:30pm
Location: Goldsmith 3.120

Hosted by: Society of American Archivists UT Student Chapter
Co-Hosted by: Dept. of Art & Art History; Dept. of History; Grad. School of Library and Information Science; Center for Russian, East European & Eurasian Studies; Dept. of Slavic Languages & Literatures
Sponsors: University Co-Op; Hollinger Corp.; Iron Mountain Records Mgmt.; Book People

Other archives week events include:

Even I was Appalled at the Possibilities: The Nature and Impact of Documentary Forgery
A talk by David B. Gracy II, GSLIS, UT at Austin,
Wednesday, October 9, 7:00pm at ESB 333

Archives Clinic
Saturday, October 12, 10:00am-3:00pm, Austin History Center, Mayors' Room

Texas Freedom of Information Association
Further information TBA

www.gslis.utexas.edu/~saa/archivesweek.html

Photo captions: (l) Bosnia's National and University Library in flames, August 26, 1992, photo by Milomir Kovacevic
(c) Charred fragment of an Ottoman document, photo by Oriental Institute in Sarajevo (r) Historical Archive of the Islamic Community of Kosovo in flames, June 13, 1999, photo by Oleg Popov