

GENDER and ARCHIVES

Archives Week 2006:
Documenting Underrepresented Communities
~ Women and Gender in Archives ~

October 22-28, 2006
At the University of Texas
and
The Austin History Center

Join the Society of American Archivists, UT Student Chapter as we explore how women's and gender issues have shaped the documentary record of our nation's culture, as well as other topics of interest in the field. Archives Week is a nationally-celebrated, locally sponsored and organized event with presentations by noted scholars highlighting the importance of archives--the source of our history and the foundation of our rights and freedoms in the public record.

Event Schedule

October 24: What's Gender Got to Do With It?: Women's History Archives — keynote address by Marilyn Dunn, executive director of the Schlesinger Library at Radcliffe University
7:00 pm, CAL 100

October 25: What You Get is Not What You See: the Nature and Impact of Documentary Forgery — by Dr. David B. Gracy II, Governor Bill Daniel Professor of Archival Enterprise, University of Texas at Austin
7:00 pm, PAR 201

October 26: Collecting and Researching Women's and Gender Issues — our wide-ranging panel discussion about women and underrepresented communities in the public record. Featuring archivists Gerrienne Schaad and Karen Riles and Professor Tiffany Gill of the History Department
7:00 pm, CAL 100

October 28: Community Archives Clinic — Do you have questions about handling and preserving your family's precious documents, recordings or films? Bring your questions or items to the Austin History Center for consultation with archivists and conservators
1:00 – 5:00 pm, Austin History Center, 8th and Guadalupe

Co-Sponsors: The University Co-op; The Events Co-Sponsorship Committee; The iSchool; SASI; The Center for Women's and Gender Studies; Hello Posterity, Inc., Chief Justice (ret.) Jack Pope, Hollinger Corp.; Metal Edge

