Honoring Generations
Developing the Next Generation of Native Librarians
School of Information, University of Texas at Austin

Use the following checklist to make sure you cover all your bases during the application process:

Applying to the Graduate School at the University of Texas at Austin
- Read through the University of Texas Office of Admissions webpage http://www.utexas.edu/student/admissions/index.html
- Complete the Online Texas Common Application https://www.applytexas.org/adappc/commonapp.WBX
- Pay your application fee either when you complete the online application or send payment to the Graduate and International Admissions Center (GIAC)
- Submit official transcripts to the GIAC. Have these sent directly from your institution(s).
- Take the GRE General Test and have these results sent to the GIAC

Applying to the School of Information
- Read through the iSchool’s Admissions page http://www.ischool.utexas.edu/admissions/masters.php
- Submit official transcripts to the School of Information. Have these sent directly from your institution(s).
- Complete the School of Information Admissions Application
- Obtain and submit three letters of recommendation along with the recommendation forms
- Submit your Statement of Purpose

Applying to the Honoring Generations Scholarship
- Contact Loriene Roy, loriene@ischool.utexas.edu, early and throughout the application process