Library Instruction

SAMPLE OUTCOME STATEMENTS IN LI:

1. Student will understand how knowledge is organized, stored, and transmitted.

2. Student will be able to evaluate information to determine its relevance, accuracy, and significance.

3. Student will know when to seek the advice of experts (including librarians) and how to ask for advice.

4. Student will know how to use information to solve a problem or answer a research question.

5. Student will be able to define or recognize their information needs.

6. Student will know how to organize an effective search strategy.